The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Friday, July 18th, 1873.

THE Washington Republican say: "There is hardly anything in current newspaper discussion more amusing than the vein of high-toned morality and disinterested patriotism that runs through all the Democratic and semi-Democratic journals upon the question of the Chief Justiceship. North, South, East and West, they are all tuned to one key. In the first place we are treated to dissertations upon the high and exalted nature of the position; we are told of the eminent and able men who have filled the chair of the Chief Justice; the name and fame of Marshall, and the virtues of the deceased Chase are emphasized and painted in the richest of colors; and then, to reverse the medal, these patriotic prints shudder lest the President in disposing of the present vacancy should appoint 'a mere politician.'"

All this talk is cant and humbug, and the gentlemen who utter know it is. No appointment that the President could possibly make would please them, unless—which we do not think there is the most remote probability of his doing—should go into the ranks of the opposition and select one of the illustrious patriots themselves, and then we should have a howl from the disappointed ones. The report which has just been put in circulation that Senator Conkling has been tendered the place has been made the text for a fourth or fifth edition of the dissertations that we have alluded to, of which the following, from the columns of the Chicago Tribune, is a fair specimen:—"If there is any real foundation for the present rumor that Mr. Conkling has been tendered the Chief Justiceship, it would look as though he had a permanent lien on all the vacancies in the Supreme Bench as long as President Grant shall be President. As Senator Conkling's claims consist chiefly in political services, this view of the matter will scarcely commend itself to the people at large." There is much more in the same spirit in the article from which we have quoted, but it is not worth reproduction. The point of the whole lies in what we have given. The Tribune has a small select list from which it would have appointments made namely: Thomas Drummond, United States Judge of the Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin circuit; Mr. Wm. M. Evans, of New York, and Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts. The democratic organs have a little band of their own—Charles O'Connor, of New York; Mr. Black, of Pennsylvania, and others of the same stripe.

There is one point in this discussion of which the opposition seems to lose sight, viz: That the vacancy has always been filled by the appointment of what they are pleased to call "a politician." What was Mr. Chase when he was appointed? The objection which is now urged against Mr. Conkling was urged against the late Chief Justice. The Democratic organs from one end of the country to the other raised a howl of denunciation against Mr. Lincoln and the "radical Republicans." They told us that Mr. Chase was no lawyer; that he had been twenty years in politics; had had no experience as a jurist, and was utterly unfitted for the position. To go back to Democratic days, why did Andrew Jackson appoint Mr. Chase's predecessor? Is it not notorious that it was on account of his subservience in obeying the command of President Jackson in removing the United States deposits, the very thing for which he was made Secretary of the Treasury? Here are two Chief Justices entirely satisfactory to the Democracy—each one of whom was appointed purely on account of political considerations.

In this whole discussion of the Chief Justiceship we have taken no part whatever, nor do we intend to do so. The President in his own good time will make his own selection, and we are confident, whoever he may be, that posterity, if not the present generation, will approve the choice, as the choice of Jackson and of Lincoln has been approved.

A young lady became so dissatisfied with her lover that she dismissed him. In revenge he threatened to publish her letters to him. "Very well," said the lady, "I have no reason to be ashamed of any part of my letters except the address."

Public Baths.

The Sanitary Investigating Committee in New York city, have made some late discoveries in the causes of disease. Among others, the fact that only two public bathing houses have come to light. And this in a great crowded, dirty city with its hot and humid air, and its toiling, sweating population, down upon which the spires of a multitude of magnificent churches from a purer atmosphere look silently and unsympathetically. The Herald revives an old appeal for public or free baths, and urges upon the municipal authorities that they devise ways and means to test in some practicable and economical way, their value to the public health. It cites also the testimony of eminent scientific observers "that the scarcity of water in the dry and heated term, is the main cause of great mortality in our large and busy metropolitan cities, and that it is not improbable if one half the pains and money now squandered upon street cleaning—never half done—were devoted to furnishing free baths for the poorer classes who toil and sweat the year round, the decimating fever, sunstroke and other summer diseases would be more directly reached, and their powerful spread effectually checked."

A general movement for the establishment of free baths in every city, would seem to be one surpassing all others in sanitary importance. The luxury of a daily bath would have a tendency not only to reduce disease, but to reconstruct the filthy, squalid habits and habits of the very poor. Pure water would not only be a health giving influence, but would prove a civilizing, refining medium also. It remains for some philanthropic individual to leave to posterity an enduring monument in the construction of great public baths, that shall bring health and decency to the masses, now dying in their dirt and discomfort. Christian charity should see to it that the growth in godliness be advanced by forwarding the claims of its ally, cleanliness.

Prospectus for 1873.

SIXTH YEAR.

THE ALDINE,

An illustrated monthly journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest periodical in the world, representative and champion of American taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.

THE ALDINE, WHILE ISSUED WITH all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any shape or number of volumes, for ten times its cost, and then there are the chromes also.

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the demand was more than met during the past year, proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready response thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America.

In addition THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest, avoiding such as have become familiar through photographs, or of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches, appropriate to four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular feature of a copiously-illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued.

To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world, at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country, and as the usefulness and attractions of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "assurance doubly sure" by the following unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873:

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for 1873, will receive without additional charge, a set of beautiful oil chromes, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures, entitled "The Village Belle" and "Crossing the Moor" are of great merit, and are from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromes are sold for $30 per pair in the art stores. As it is the determination of the publishers to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromes will be found correspondingly ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromes delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of these chromes to the subscribers of a $5 periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of art, and considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE itself, the marvel is little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromes see Nov. issue of THE ALDINE.)

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT

will continue under the care of Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS:

FIVE DOLLARS per annum, in advance, with oil-chromes free. THE ALDINE will hereafter be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscription must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fact-simile signature of Jas. Sutton & Co. AGENTS WANTED.

Any person wishing to act permanently as a local agent, will receive the widest information by applying to JAS. SUTTON & CO., Publishers, No. 58 Maiden Lane, New York.

THE FASHIONABLE SOUVENIR, HOLIDAY SEASON.

This year will be THE SUPERB VOLUME OF THE ALDINE.

Richly bound in morocco cloth, assorted colors, beveled boards, red edges, gilt on back and side—a truly royal volume—a gallery of fine art engravings that will be at once a great pleasure to the recipient, and a demonstration of the taste of the donor. There are about 200 plates, most of which could not be matched in size or quality in the art stores at a dollar each. They comprise designs by the leading painters and draughtsmen of the day, giving the widest range of figure, animal and landscape subjects, combined with pure, light and graceful literature, edited by the poet scholar, Richard Henry Stoddard, forming a most attractive ornament for the parlor or library.

PRICE, $8.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES

Will contain Selected Editorials from the Daily Times; General News, Domestic and Foreign; The Proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures; Full and Interesting Correspondence; Book Reviews; The Choice Literary Selections; while its most prominent feature will be a COMPLETE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, with original articles from practical farmers; full reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club; complete weekly market reports; financial, domestic produce, live stock, dry goods and general.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,

THE TIMES will have no superior, and will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,

THE TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party, its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform.

But it will not confine its efforts to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the interests of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly Times: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscriptions to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail. Address: THE NEW YORK TIMES, New York City.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint: C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, A. H. STRASSBAUGH. Croswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873. Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work), completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you), to make what use you think proper of this letter. Very respectfully and truly, S. MCGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC.—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work; where paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate. WM. E. SINN, Baltimore, April 25, 1873.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872. Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to the class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception. Yours, truly, JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED. Mr. C. P. Knight—In the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that your "Patent Enamel" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor. Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint.—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheerfully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities are everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work. Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St. House, Sign and Fresco Painters. PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other. Very Respectfully, R. DICKEY, M. D. C. P. KNIGHT, Sole Agent, No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.

THE NEW ELASTIC TRUSS—AN IMPORTANT INVENTION.

It retains its elasticity at all times, and under the hardest exercise or severest strain. It is worn with comfort, and if kept on night and day, effects a permanent cure in a few weeks. Sold cheap, and sent by mail when requested. Circulars free, when ordered by letter sent to The Elastic Truss Co., No. 683 Broadway, N. Y. City. Nobody uses Metal Spring Trusses; too painful; they slip off too frequently.

THE BARBER SHOP.

JOE TURNER wishes to inform his customers and public generally, that he is now prepared to do all kind of work in his line, and would respectfully request a continuation of the patronage which has heretofore been so liberally bestowed upon him.

Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World.

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS. The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators, as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it, has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.—1873. TERMS: Harper's Magazine, one year.....$4 00 An extra copy of either the Magazine, Weekly, or Bazar will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or, six copies for $2 00, without extra every month, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.

Subscriptions to Harper's Magazine, Weekly, and Bazar, to one address for one year, $10 00; or, two of Harper's Periodicals, to one address for one year, $7 00. Back numbers can be supplied at any time.
